

CONGRATULATIONS JANET L. GBUR

2016 WINNER
ASM INTERNATIONAL
STUDENT PAPER CONTEST

The ASM International Board of Trustees has named Janet L. Gbur, Doctoral Candidate, Case Western University, as the winner of the 2016 ASM International Student Paper Contest for her entry entitled "Fatigue and Fracture of Wires and Cables for Biomedical Applications." The awards program recognizes achievements of members of the materials science and engineering community. Awards will be presented at Materials Science Technology 2016 (MS&T '16), in Salt Lake City, UT in October.

The ASM International Student Paper Contest was established in 1985, as a mechanism for student participation in Society affairs. The award recognizes the best technical paper with a graduate or undergraduate student as first author that is published in an ASM sponsored publication during the year.

About the FES Center

The Cleveland FES Center is a consortium of the Louis Stokes Cleveland VA Medical Center, MetroHealth Medical Center, Case Western Reserve University, and University Hospitals. With their support, researchers, engineers and clinicians collaborate together to develop innovative solutions that improve the quality of life of individuals with neurological or other muscular skeletal impairments. Through the use of neurostimulation and neuromodulation research and applications, the Cleveland FES Center leads the translation of this technology into clinical deployment.
